Still Seeking Glory.

After considering the matter for two weeks that irrepresible fighter for glory, The Uvalde Leader News, produces the following specimen of sorrowful sympathy:

We are sorry Brother Davis of the Hondo Anvil-Herald misunderstood our purpose in again saying something in connection with his search for the fellows who were reviving the rancors of last summer's campaign.

Oh! we understood it all right. You wanted more glory!

The readers of both papers will remember that our first participation in this little argument was simply an inquiry as to whom he was hitting when he denounced the fellows who were making prohibition an issue in this State campaign. He replied that his remarks applied, no matter who the parties were--whether they were on the anti or pro side of the question. That was fair enough.

All of which is, like wise true enough and all of which still goes. But the Leader News does not tell all the truth, as we shall show later on. And while trying to dodge the main fact, as usual with people whose ways are dark, it stumbled. Hear it:

Then we stumbled on to an article that stated that prohibition was the principal issue in this campaign and week before last we simply sought to give Davis the benefit of our discovery. We thought he would appreciate the favor, but last week he took three columns to show that he did not.

Mistaken again. We never preach a three column sermon without appreciating the opportunity, and we could not be unappreciative of this opportunity to moralize over the example of the tangled web one weaves when they practice to deceive afforded us by the Leader-News.

Of course, we couldn't help it that the signers to the article were all antis and that they were making an anti argument. It just happened that way.

The article in question, it will be remembered, was an address from the German-Texas State League calling upon the Germans of Texas to vote for certain candidates for office because "they will do nothing to bring prohibition into our state." Of course, it just happened that way that the signers were none of them office-seekers and could not themselves beseeching mercenary profit by the agitation. It just happened that they did not recommend their ticket because the ticket was making prohibition an issue. It just happened, of course, that some one else was, and that their efforts were simply that of opposition--of self defence against an assault upon personal and property rights affecting every man in Texas. It just happened that some one else is the man, and his associates, who had been selected nearly two years ago to make a campaign on that issue. It just happened that that address was not penned and published until after this same some one had butted into the campaign and begun his demagogic appeals to prejudice. It just happens, of course, that the Leader-News seeks to dodge, becloud and obscure these facts. And of course it just happened that these things should have taught the Leader-News to cry out of the depths of its bitter experience that--

Of course, it is unfortunate that a man should go out hunting with a loaded gun, even though the load is but ballots, and find that the men he is gunning for are friends.

Verily its experience has taught it the full lesson of the sorrow of such misfortune. But what will not the Leader-News brave for the glory of licking something to death! Why it will even feign sympathy where there is only desire to lick to death! Listen to its concluding spasm:

We sympathize with Davis in his misfortune.

We are at a loss to know what our misfortune is, unless it be that we have been selected as the victim of the Leader-News' squirt gun [and are to be "licked to death." But even then we shall covet no ones sympathy. Think how!appy we shall die in the reflection that it was us who afforded the Leader-News an opportunity to shine in such effulgent glory!

Now, to return to the main fact. What we really said and what the Leader-News only partially quotes follows:

"Our observation (the paragraph to which the Leader-News objected) is a general one intended for a general application. We would not shield any one friend or foe, from its application where deserved.

"But since our contemporary seems to want to give it a personal one, we are perfectly willing that it do so, and invite a comparison of the seventh plank of Judge Ramsey's platform and his opening speech at Gonzales with the speech of Governor Colquitt at Sherman."

Then to accommodate the Leader-News, we later produced a specific parallel from the two speeches to substantiate our contention that it is the pro candidate, his backers and associates, who have forced the Prohibition issue into this campaign. Let us repeat that parallel here:

In respect to the matter of State-wide Prohibition I now declare, as I have heretofore declared, that I advocated and voted for prohibition in 1887, and voted for it in the election held last July and would vote for such measure whenever presented. My support of it is as a measure which will decrease intemperance and banish the evils of the saloon. These evils and the domination of our State by the corrupt and corrupting liquor interests, I shall always oppose. I further more believe that in view of the slender majority against such measure at the last election, such election has left the question of constitutional prohibition practically undecided, since it is claimed and believed by thousands of our people that such election was attended by such frauds in respect to the payment of poll taxes and the shameful use of a vast campaign fund and other improper practices which brought about the apparent or real defeat of the amendment, and I, therefore, believe that it will be wise and proper to have the question of State-wide Prohibition again submitted.

W. F. Ramsey at Gonzales in his opening speech.

Isn't it small wonder, in the light of the foregoing, that the Leader-News should stumble, should fall, should flounder a-

In these days of high cost of living, a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble, was confined to his bed unable to turned without help. "I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." You'll need your poll tax receipt when you go to vote in the primary Saturday.

Scratch Sheppard next Saturday. He has announced himself as an enemy to State Rights and in favor of National Prohibition. His proper place is in the Prohibition party and not the Democratic. Vote for Jake Wolters.

The present political campaign will close with the primary election next Saturday, July 27th. The candidates who on that day receive the greatest number of votes will be the states officials for the next two years and the principles for which they stand will be the policy of the state government during their incumbency. If you expect to have a voice in the selection of these officials and the adoption of the policies for which they stand you must vote next Saturday. It will be too late to change the result in November. Think about this and then go to the polls and do your duty.

If you believe in prohibition; if you believe the property values now employed in the production and handling of liquor should be destroyed without compensating the losers; if you believe the thousands of men employed in producing and handling it should be thrown out of employment without recourse; if you believe the state should sacrifice the revenue now derived from the traffic and replace it by increasing property taxes while the people of the state supply their liquor wants from outside the state; if you believe it is a moral crime to swallow a glass of beer and that the sale of it should be made a crime vote for Ramsey. He stands for these things. His candidacy has no other excuse for existence. If you oppose these things and would have our state unhampered by such blue law restrictions vote for O. B. Colquitt, and do it next Saturday.

Died.

Mr. J. C. Greer died at his home in the eastern part of town early Wednesday morning, July 17, 1912, after an illness of a few weeks duration. The body was prepared for shipment and was sent to Maryville, Tennessee, Thursday morning where it will be buried by the side of his son who preceded him in death a few years. Mrs. Greer accompanied the remains of her husband on the long sad trip.

Mr. Greer was a native Tennessean. He and Mrs. Greer came to Texas a number of years ago on account of the health of their only son. After spending some time at Kerrville and Del Rio, they finally settled in Hondo where Mr. Greer opened the first tailoring establishment ever in Hondo. He continued in this business until a few weeks ago when he quit on account of failing health. His son died several years ago and was taken back to Tennessee for interment. Now the father has followed to his last long resting place and only the bereaved companion and mother is left to mourn the dead. She has the heartfelt sympathy of this entire community.

Public Speaking.

Hon. Marshall Hicks will speak in the interest of Judge Ramsey's candidacy for Governor at Devine Tuesday morning, at Yancey Tuesday afternoon and at the Airdome in Hondo Tuesday night. He will make the trip from Devine to Hondo in a car. An effort will be made to secure a Colquitt speaker from San Antonio to accompany Mr. Hicks and divide time with him, but up to going to press no definite arrangements had been made to this effect.

Later, Judge T. D. Cobbs will speak for Colquitt at Devine Wednesday and at the court house in Hondo at three o'clock P. M. Thursday, July 25th.

CAMPAIGN OF TEXAS GOVERNOR

For Second Term Discussed by Number of Friends.

AN ADDRESS IS PREPARED

Two Hundred Citizens Present a Document Setting Forth Record of Mr. Colquitt and Urging That He Succeed Himself.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 10.—An enthusiastic meeting of Colquitt supporters, at which about 200 were represented in person and by letters, was held at the Westbrook hotel today.

Colonel R. M. Johnston of Houston called the meeting to order and stated its object—that of aiding the campaign of Governor O. B. Colquitt for re-election. He expressed gratification that in view of the quarantines now prevailing the attendance was so large and that so many sections of the state were represented.

The conference was organized by the election of G. H. Culp of Gainesville as chairman and W. P. Hobby of Beaumont as secretary.

Many speeches were made indicating that the interest in Governor Colquitt's re-election is general throughout the state and that an aggressive campaign will be waged in his behalf from the counties and sections represented. Each speaker predicted the re-nomination of Governor Colquitt by an overwhelming majority.

A committee on ways and means, consisting of Paul Waples of Fort Worth, Gus Shaw of Texarkana, F. W. Cook of San Antonio, Royal A. Ferris of Dallas and B. F. Bonner of Houston was appointed to consult Governor Colquitt with a view to aiding him in the promotion of his campaign.

A committee was appointed to prepare an address to the Democrats of Texas in behalf of Governor Colquitt, and the adoption of the views as outlined by this committee setting forth the achievements of Governor Colquitt's administration and presenting his claims to the support of Democrats in the forthcoming primaries ended the work of the conference.

Address to Texas Democrats.
The address and the signatures of those offering it was as follows:
To the Democrats of Texas:

We present Governor O. B. Colquitt for re-nomination at your hands, because we believe he is worthy of your trust; because the practical policies which he has executed have operated to the benefit of our citizenship, and because he is clearly entitled to the enjoyment of a second term under the time-honored custom of our party.

He is a man of fair dealing and unflinching courage in the performance of duty; he has not deceived you; he has not disappointed the expectations of his friends; he has not played politics, but has met every issue promptly, with adherence to conviction and with a patriotic purpose to serve the state and uphold its laws. His private life is blameless; his public career of twenty years is an unbroken record of devotion to the public welfare; he has given the best energies of his life to the service of the state.

Benefited Public Institutions.

His administration has been marked by economy and businesslike methods; to meet a deficit caused by a tax rate which was manipulated for political purposes and which failed to yield a sufficient revenue, he had the courage to recommend and the legislature wisely made provisions sufficient to maintain the government with efficiency but without extravagance. As a consequence the state's education and eleemosynary institutions, which had been inadequately maintained and impoverished, are now decently supported; buildings which had suffered damage almost to the point of destruction have been repaired; needed improvements and equipments have been provided and in the erection of new buildings fireproof construction has been required.

In proof of the fairness of this statement we refer to the reports of the several committees appointed by the general appropriations committee of the last legislature to personally inspect the state's eleemosynary and educational institutions and specially to the report prepared by Hon. C. M. Cureton on the intolerable physical conditions which were revealed at the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Tuberculosis Commission.

He has won the approval of the whole people by his helpful aid in the cause of humanity and curative science in the matter of creating the tuberculosis commission as a means of arresting the ravages of the great white plague. Equally prompt and efficient has been the action of this state health department with respect to the prevailing visitation of meningitis and in all other matters of public health.

Upon his recommendation the most liberal appropriation in the history of the state was made for the livestock sanitary commission and that body has administered the law with exceptional efficiency, not only with respect to cattle quarantine and cattle inspection, but with respect also to the suppression of diseases among farm animals. As a consequence, millions of dollars have been saved to the livestock industry of the state.

His prompt and wise action in protecting the Texas border from marauders and from perils threatened by the recent Mexican insurrections has brought approval and applause from the entire nation.

The New Prison System.

The new prison system under the direction of his commissioners has become merciful and reformatory as well as punitive; cruelty has been abolished and prison life has become tolerable and wholesome without sacrificing discipline. Notwithstanding ing a heavy financial obligation imposed by the law allowing pay to convicts; notwithstanding heavy loss of revenue by the unavoidable freezing of a large part of the state's cane crop, and notwithstanding a disastrous fire at the Huntsville prison, the system has been maintained upon its own revenues and provision has been made for needed repairs and reconstruction.

By his express recommendation or by his cheerful approval, the state's educational institutions are more generously sustained than for many years past; the normal schools have been placed under a single board of regents, removed as far as possible from political control; rural high schools have been established and an improved text book law has been enacted with provisions for the prevention of political influence.

Opposed Political Spoils System.

His administration is notable for the high character and efficiency of his appointees. Appreciative of his friends, he has refused to regard the public service as the spoils of political war.

In so far as he has been able under the stressful circumstances of factional strife, he has directed his energies toward making the government more serviceable; his policies have been constructive; he has sought to bring prosperity to business, improvement to agriculture, and peace to the people. He has refused to permit extended and repeated sessions of the legislature to harass the state with adventitious legislation for political or factional ends.

The opposition to his re-election is an appeal solely to prejudice growing out of the late prohibition campaign. For four years the state has been embroiled in this controversy, which was submitted to the people last year. If the people desire it submitted again they have full opportunity in the appointed way and they can be neither hindered nor helped in this purpose by the governor, whoever he may be. Until the people order another submission the question ought to be eliminated from our state affairs as irrelevant and as hurtful to our peace and prosperity.

Signal Service for Temperance.

In the meanwhile Governor Colquitt has rendered signal service in the interest of temperance and in the enforcement of law by suppressing many so-called social clubs which were saloons in disguise.

Four years ago the country suffered a financial panic; for three years following there has been distress in agriculture and in commerce on account of deficient rainfall, and the passing winter brought an infliction of epidemic disease which has distressed the people and caused serious injury to business. Meanwhile economic problems press for solution. Our commerce, our agriculture, our industries and our social conditions demand the most intelligent and the most considerate care which a dutiful government may bestow in the interest of prosperity, health and happiness.

Governor Colquitt's re-election will insure an administration free from harassing legislation, alert to material affairs and pledged to salutary and practical reforms in response to the universal demand for progressive limitations of the liquor traffic and for the strict enforcement of the law.

Re-Election Means Political Rest.

Courage in office upon the part of an executive or upon the part of a legislative body always develops more or less opposition by those who are disappointed in failing to obey action which they seek in their interest. Selfish business on the one hand and zealous labor on the other are constantly striving for advantage or benefit or betterment. As a consequence no faithful administration can hope to escape criticism of some kind. Upon the whole the administration of Governor Colquitt has aroused less opposition in these respects than might have been expected, for he has been compelled under his view of constitutional duty and sound public policy to resist some measures favored by commercial interests and some interests favored by labor interests. Every fair man who is apart from personal interest in such measures will accord to him good conscience and unselfish conduct for the manifest reason that he has dared to do his duty as he saw it at the hazard of his political fortune. After all is said however, it is plain to thinking minds that the welfare of business and the welfare of labor alike at this time demand a cessation of strife in order that commerce and industry may recover from the distresses of drought, disease and disturbance and that every man of commerce and every man of toil may have opportunity to employ his capital or his labor. We appeal for at least two years of rest from turmoil and we admonish the people not to be misled by personal ambition, political spite or factional strife.

We believe that aside from prohibition, which is not a pertinent issue, the masses are one in approval of Governor Colquitt's administration and we confidently rely upon their sense of justice and fair dealing to give him an opportunity to perfect the policies which he has so wisely adopted and to bring to Texas a short season of "legislative rest and political peace."

The people of Texas are a just people. While swift and sure in their rebuke to unworthiness in the public service they are none the less generous in their approval of loyalty to public trust. They have never permitted the factional spirit of an hour to becloud their judgment or obscure their course of action. At this time, when every patriotic impulse is for the prosperity of the commonwealth and contentment of its people, in advocating the re-nomination of Governor Colquitt we appeal to their sense of justice in behalf of competent administration and the maintenance of soberness, fairness and integrity in the conduct of public affairs.

What Makes A Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming faintness and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by W. H. Windrow.

Chiggers and Mosquitoes.

Are now in their glory—their business is good and they are happy. There is no earthly use of letting them chew on you, however, if you do not like their ways. A little Hunt's Lightning Oil applied to exposed parts will keep them off and immediately relieve the irritation caused by their bites. Rub a little on and see for yourself.

A woman would rather her husband came home to dinner on time than stay down town late to be elected president of a trust.

Fretful babies need the comforting effect of McGEE'S BABY ELIXIR. It quiets feverishness, corrects sour stomach, cures colic pains and checks diarrhoea. There are lots of people who are afraid to sit down at a table with 13, but a hungry small boy is not one of them.

The Choice Of A Husband

The Unveiling.

A large crowd assembled at the W. O. W. cemetery at Four o'clock last Sunday afternoon to witness the unveiling of the monument to the late Sovereign Charles Winkler. Almost the entire membership of Bois D'Arc Camp and a number of visiting Sovereigns from neighboring Lodges were present and, in the regalia of their order, made a very impressive scene with their service around the grave. Rev. M. L. Darby, pastor of the Hondo Methodist Church and a member of the Woodmen Order, delivered a very touching eulogy at the grave.

The politest conversation is listening to the other fellows.

There's no way to be a bigger nuisance than always to be consistent.

Bilious Spells

No Longer Dangerous

Dodson's Liver-Tone is a Safe Medicine to Take the Place of too Powerful Calomel.

In the days when calomel was the only liver remedy, a torpid liver, or a spell of biliousness was a serious thing. Calomel is a powerful mineral substance that compels the liver, no matter how weak it is, to do its work, but does nothing to strengthen the liver, the usual dose—may cause salivation. Dodson's Liver-Tone is a builder that strengthens the liver while making it do its work. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, has no bad after effect and is perfectly suited for children as well as grown people. You don't have to be careful what you eat.

W. H. Windrow will sell you a bottle and guarantee it to give you perfect satisfaction. If it doesn't you can get your money back simply by asking for it.
